Why spend months or even years learning to drive when you can pass your driving test in one week with Britannia? According to the DVSA, a learner driver needs an average of 47 lessons before they pass their practical driving test. This can be expensive, which is why we've seen a big increase in our one-week intensive courses.

Our Driving Instructors are:

- Dependable:

70% of our pupils passed with 30 lessons or fewer

- Established:

We have been serving South West London Surrey since 1992

- Highly Regarded:

80% of pupils who recently passed with us have recommended us

- Dedicated

One to One Tuition, no distracting pick ups en route, no extra charge for evening and weekends, no difference between manual or automatic lesson prices.
